SOLDIERS' FAMILIES APPEAL FOR RELIEF

Applications Already Have Come to Woman's Relief Corps.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE CASES

Heeting Planned for Tomorrow Afternoon, When Work of Aiding Those in Need Will Be Started.

Appeals for relief from guardsmen's families have begun to reach the won s relief corps of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, according to Mrs. William E. Harvey, president and at a meeting yesterday a committee was appointed to investigate the cases. This committee will make its report at the next meeting of the organization, which will be held at Mrs Harvey's residence, 1744 Lamont street orthwest. Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

At yesterday's meeting plans for affiliating with the Rotary Club in relief work were discussed, and a committee, consisting of Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Coope and Mrs. B. R. Rhees, was appointed to represent the relief corps at a meeting of the associations interested in the work, which will be held at the Willard Hotel temorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. John Dolph, chairman of the Rotary Club's relief committee, addressed the organization, laying before it the exact purpose of and benefits to be realized from organized relief work.

The meeting was largely attended by the feminine relatives of commissioned the feminine relatives of commissioned the series of the District guard, and Mrs. the relief corps to be a big factor in aiding guardsmen's lites. The organization will meet eafter every Tuesday afternoon at colock at Mrs. Harvey's residence in further notice. All members are red to attend.

CHANGES THE LIMIT ON AGE FOR RECRUITS

Assurances heretofore given by Brig. Gen. William E. Harvey, in command of Camp Ordway, and by Maj. Harry Coope, his adjutant general, that applicants less than twenty-one years of age would not be accepted in the military service unless by consent of parents or guardians, were based on definite statements made by the United States mustering officer. Capt. Horace P. Hobbs, U. S. A., detailed to muster in the District National Guard, decided that he could not muster any person less than twenty-one years of age into the United States service.

However, Capt. Hobbs has now been ordered by higher authority to accept appli-Sommers of 754 Rock Creek Church road northwest.

Members of the Hospital Corps in speaking of the effort of the Presbyterian women today said that the "housewives" are deeply appreciated and that they believe it would be a wonderfully fine thing if many of the fond wives, mothers, sisters, sweethearts, etc., of the District soldier boys would only send these very useful articles to the camp instead of the large amount of the various kinds of "eats."
